

Questions to think about

- Have you ever used words in an unkind way to hurt someone's feelings?
- What does it mean when we say someone is gossiping?
- What does the phrase, 'It's often not what you say, but the way you say it!' mean?
- Are you the type of person who does not expect others to take offence when you say something that you don't mean, but are quick to be offended by others?
- Do you think the saying, 'Sticks and stones will break my bones but names will never hurt me.' makes sense?
- If you heard other people spreading rumours or gossiping about a friend of yours, what would you do?

- If you heard your friends spreading rumours or gossiping about someone you weren't particularly friends with, what would you do?
- Is it worse to spread gossip or to listen and enjoy it?
