

Slow and steady

in what they cannot have

Don't try to be something

No one believes a liar

even when he's telling the truth

Thrift and hard work:

nature didn't make you

Keep your wits about you

the secret of success!

Every cheat gets

Some people don't realise

when they're well off!

Freedom is better

it's a jungle out there.

found out in the end

Some people find fault

before they hatch

Sometimes we do not see

when we are well off

Those who live in glass houses

Don't expect a reward

Pretending to be what you are

should not throw stones

not can bring trouble

Make hay

follow the crowd

powerful allies

than the most luxurious prison

Don't count your chickens

Liars give

Small friends can be

for a good deed

Don't just

be costly

Pride can

Persuasion is

while the sun shines

Beauty is in the eye

themselves away

of the beholder

better than force

wins the race
