Women in the Second World War

ıe documents you will be looking at were all published during the war years and they are all aimed mainly at women. Fill in the chart low to show what kind of message they are giving to women. It will be interesting to see whether they show women as homemakers people working outside the home.

hat is the document?	Who wrote it?	Say briefly what its main message is.	H for homemaker O for outside job